Joplin, Mo., Sept. 13.—The general quotations of zinc are unchanged at $40 for the choicest, and an assay basis of $15 to $37 per ton of 60 per cent zinc, but it is rumored that the purchasing agents are en-deavoring to break the market by cutting the price on a bin of ore here and there over the district. With the new LaHarpe smelter in the field for four carloads a week, and the output at a minimum, it does not appear possible that any material reductions in prices can be made.
